FROM FATHER JOHN:

Today in the Gospel, Jesus speaks forcefully to us about the call to discipleship, of following him. Jesus invites all to follow him and there are many and varied reactions and responses to the invitation. Some will not even listen to him because they are prejudiced against the One who extends the invitation. Some respond without fully understanding the implications.

Discipleship is a total commitment. Jesus wants us to know from the very beginning that following him will lead to the crucifixion. But there is the assurance of the resurrection and ever-lasting life.
